Bridging Gemology to the Gem Trade

Established in Bangkok in 2017, the Institute of Gem Trading offers gemological courses based on decades of experience in mining, cutting, and gem trading.

Through our modular short courses, you will learn the skills of the modern professional field gemologists such as grading rough colored gemstones, cutting and recutting gems in order to maximize values, as well as mastering the trade secrets of the colored gemstones market.

With a hands-on approach, students will learn through lectures, videos, interactive demonstrations, sample specimens, workshops, field trips, and seminars by industry leaders.
